Location of the New C. & O. Depot Possibly Changed—Matter Taken Up With Directors.

Several days ago the matter was taken up by the Maysville Chamber of Commerce to change the location of the new C. & O. depot slightly, in order that the new $70,000 building might not be hid from the view of transients along Second street by the Kirk Flats.

Yesterday a local man received a letter from Mr. Garrett B. Wall, assistant to President G. W. Stevens of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, advising him that the matter had been taken up with the directors of the company and that he had recommended that the change be made. He said that it was not unlikely that the change would be acted upon favorably. Doubtless the new location of the depot, across Lower street, so that the building could be plainly seen from Second street would be a splendid one, but if the railroad men do not wish to put it there the matter should be dropped at once. As we get the idea, the new depot is to advertise Maysville to the thousands of persons passing through Maysville on this railroad each month. The depot should be placed so as to give them the best impression of our town possible.

Work will begin with in a few weeks, filling Lower street. As soon as this is completed the new structure will begin to rise and will be finished about the first of the new year.

In order to give the many Maysville people a chance to take an excursion, who were not able to go on the Cincinnati trip on account of bad weather, the boat will make a three hour trip from Maysville. Free dancing on the boat, the Yates Saxophone Trio furnishing the music. This trip is regarded as one of the best on the river. A calypso concert will be given at the arrival of the boat. MR. EASTON FOR MAYOR

The Ledger is pleased to announce the candidacy of Mr. J. D. Easton for the honorable office of Mayor of the City of Maysville. The Ledger can say with much force that Mr. Easton is an honest man. He has had four years' experience as councilman from the Second Ward and his work has been conscientiously performed. His candidacy will appeal to the voters of Maysville and the Ledger in common with the rest of our citizenship are leaving the mayoralty race to the choice of the voters and may they elect the best man to rule over them. Whoever that is, the Ledger stands behind him in all his efforts of civic progress and municipal righteousness.

MARRIED AT HUNTON

(Huntington (W. Va.) Advertiser) Yesterday Vaught Glickerson, a well known transfer man, of Sixth street, and Miss Dorothy Flowers, of Ninth avenue, eloped to Hunton where they were united in marriage by Rev. H. E. Kiefer, of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. The bride is the daughter of Edward Flowers of Ninth avenue, and is an attractive and popular girl. Her youth caused the father to interpose objections to the match, and Hunton was sought as a remedy. Mr. and Mrs. Glickerson returned to Huntington last night to receive the congratulations of their many friends. They will reside at 710 Sixth street.

CONVENTION AT DOVER

The Christian Churches of the Twelfth District of Kentucky will have their annual convention this year at Dover on next Monday and Tuesday. This district includes Mason, Lewis, Fleming, Bracken and Robertson counties. The churches of Mason county should be well represented. Train connections are good should a person only desire to attend part or all the time. Several persons from this county are on the program. But the attraction will be speakers from Cincinnati and Lexington. All the general interests of the church will be considered during this convention.

TWO JOINED ARMY

They both went to Fort Thomas.

BIG CIRCUS

Will Be In This City on Thursday and Friday of Next Week—Given Under Auspices of Elks.

One of the biggest and funniest home talent productions ever seen in Maysville will be the Elks Great Three-Ring Circus, Museum and Menagerie, which is planned by the local Elks for next Thursday and Friday nights. Over a hundred prominent Maysville citizens will take part in the production which will be staged under mammoth circus tents in the East End Ball Park.

The show is an exact reproduction of a Barnum and Bailey three-ring circus and the entire program is one continuous laugh from start to finish. The wild animal trainers, bareback riders, wire-walkers, acrobats, clowns will all be local Elks, but to add strength to the performance, the committee has engaged a number of high class professional circus acts so their patrons are assured not only the biggest home talent show ever seen here but an honest to goodness circus also.

Rehearsals are being held nightly and the public will be surprised to see what daring "artists" and talented performers have been masquerading around town as plain business and professional men. All in all, it certainly looks like two big circus days for Maysville next week.

As a special inducement to the boys and girls, a handsome Shetland Pony will be given away by the circus committee. Votes are given with every ticket.

Miss Margaret R. Brown will open a night class in Bookkeeping Monday, May 14, at Miss Cartmell's School, Rooms, First-Standard Bank Building. 11-21

ROOT'S MISSION

In naming Mr. Elihu Root to take the Chairmanship of the commission which the United States is about to send to Russia President Wilson has shown that by "serving his country best he is serving his party best." Mr. Root was one of the President's strongest opponents in the recent Presidential campaign, and in this might have been found a good excuse for ignoring the most distinguished former Secretary of State now alive and giving the Commissioner-ship to another person less able. That the President chose the man best qualified for the position and that Mr. Root accepted the appointment are new evidences that Republicans and Democrats have forgotten that they are party men and are working shoulder against shoulder for the good of the nation.

The sending of this commission to Russia to assure the Provisional Government there not only of the best wishes of the United States but of its actual material assistance marks a tremendous step in that democratization of the world to which the living example of the United States has given so great an impetus. The commission of which Mr. Root will be the leader will arrive in Russia at the crucial period of the young democracy's life. That it will be received as enthusiastically as it is being sent is undoubted; that it will be instrumental in anchoring Russia among the free democracies of the world for all time is the fond wish of all Americans.—New York Herald.

JOSEPH BENSON FORAKER

Former United States Senator and twice Governor of Ohio, died at his home, Madison and Grandin roads, at 11 o'clock Thursday morning.

Altho in ill health for some time, Mr. Foraker was able to be at his office daily until a week ago last Monday, when on leaving his office he became unconscious. From that time on his condition grew steadily worse, until Wednesday evening, when his physicians, Dr. C. C. Fife and Dr. Gordon McKim, informed the family that there was no hope for recovery.

At his bedside when the end came were his wife, Mrs. Julia Bundy Foraker; his three daughters, Mrs. Randolph Mathews, Cincinnati; Mrs. Victor Cushman, Washington, and Mrs. T. King Wainwright, Philadelphia, and his only surviving son, Arthur St. Clair Foraker, Washington, D. C.

An Enlivened Record
Joseph Benson Foraker left a record which is not only part of the history of Ohio, but of the United States. His public service extended over a period of more than half a century. He was ever constant in honor, fearless in conduct and stainless in reputation.

To his credit goes the introduction of the resolution of intervention in the United States Senate which led to our war with Spain. He was the "whip" of the upper house. His address in that august body on that memorable 29th of May, 1898, stands as a sermon on American fealty.

Joseph Benson Foraker was born July 5, 1846, and if he had survived until the coming July 5 would have been 71 years old. He was born on a farm near Rainsboro, Highland county, Ohio, of good old Methodist stock.

At the age of 16 he enlisted in the Union army and went to the front with Company A, Eighty-ninth Regiment, Ohio Volunteers. Almost from the beginning he served as a noncommissioned officer and later was promoted to the rank of lieutenant. He took part in many bloody battles and was with General Sherman on his famous march to the sea. He also acted as mid-de-camp on the staff of General Slocum in the advance through the Carolinas.

He was the courier chosen by his commander to bear the welcome message of the capture of Savannah to the United States fleet off the coast. Returning to civil life in Cincinnati at the close of the war he wore a Captain's shoulder straps, although he was barely 19 years of age.

Soon after his return he entered Cornell College and was graduated at Ithaca in the class of 1869. He then took up the study of law and began practice in Cincinnati.

His splendid record as a practitioner caused his elevation as Justice of the Superior Court in Cincinnati. He resigned in 1882.

Justice Foraker then took a most active interest in politics. He became one of the standard bearers of the Republican party. He was but 36 years old when he received the nomination for Governor of Ohio, but was defeated by a small margin by Judge Hoadly. In 1885 they were again opposing candidates, and Judge Foraker was returned the victor. He was honored by a re-election.

The State Republican Convention of 1886 named him as a candidate for the United States Senate and in January, 1896, the Legislature chose him to succeed the Hon. Calvin S. Brice. He was re-elected and held the toga of United States Senator for twelve years, retiring again to his law practice in Cincinnati on March 3, 1909.

The Republican party of Ohio, as well as of the nation, believed in his wisdom as a guiding power in the complex problems of statecraft. He was Chairman of the Republican State Conventions of Ohio from 1886 to 1900 and a delegate-at-large from Ohio to the Republican National Conventions from 1884 to 1904.

As Chairman of the Ohio Delegations to the Republican National Conventions of 1884 and 1888 he presented to both conventions the name of John Sherman for nomination for the Presidency. In the conventions of 1892 and 1896 he served as Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions and as such reported the platform each time to the convention.

In the Republican National Conventions of 1896 and 1900 Senator Foraker in masterly addresses presented the name of William McKinley to be the standard bearer of the Republican party.

He fought and won his remarkable successes both in law and statecraft by his talent, his genius, his untiring labor and his unswerving integrity. His exalted excellence of mind and idealism, his versatility and talent, his personality and invincible spirit, coupled with ardent patriotism and unceasing toil, were the secrets of his great success. The late President McKinley epitomized his life when he said: "Senator Foraker has been bold, honest and just. His administrations as Governor and his career in the United States Senate were absolutely clean."

Bigger and Better Ford Car Tires GOODRICH 375 SIZE (31X3 3/4 INCHES) 375 BLACK SAFETY TREAD TIRES

THE balance line for the Ford car is drawn, and the sum total of its perfection struck with that new Goodrich tire, the bigger and better Ford car tire—Goodrich's "Three-Seventy-Five."

OF SUPER-SIZE and SUPER-STRENGTH it not only meets the INDIVIDUAL NEEDS of the Ford car, —but DOUBLES its VIRTUES.

New as today, it is nevertheless already familiarly known by the knowing as—

Goodrich's
"Three-Seventy-Five"

That's its size: Three and seventy-five hundredths inches in the cross section. And it's an inch bigger too in the circumference.

Its heroic size, however, is designed to fit 30-inch rims on Ford cars. It is made solely with the five-finger safety tread.

It costs but little more than ordinary tires at the outset; and the natter appearance and added comfort it gives your Ford car, and its own greater dollar ECONOMY, make it the better buy in the end.

21-30 AGE AGREED ON — HOUSE CONFEREES ACCEPT PROHIBITION AT MILITARY POSTS AND REFUSE ROOSEVELT PLAN

Washington, May 10.—The long deadlock of Senate and House conferees on the selective draft military bill was broken today with agreement on a compromise measure by which a great army would be raised by selective conscription of men between the ages of 21 and 30 inclusive.

Authorization for recruiting Colonel Roosevelt's proposed volunteer division for service in France written into the bill by the Senate and defended stubbornly by the Senate conferees finally was thrown out on the insistence of committeemen representing the House. In turn the House yielded to the Senate's proposal for prohibition of military posts.

The conference report is expected to be given approval by both Senate and House in a few days and within two weeks after the President has affixed his signature, registration of those eligible for conscription will be under way throughout the country. Some states already have selected their registration board and the War Department has erected a vast and intricate war machine for assigning and organizing the conscripts. They will be assembled at training camps in September.

Administration Satisfied
The compromise bill is understood to be generally satisfactory to the administration and to the army general staff on whose advice the original measure was framed. The most important change made in conference was in the age limit fixed by the staff at 19 and 25, inclusive. The Senate made them 21 and 27 and the House 21 and 40. The ages named in the conferees agreement are 21 and 30, inclusive, making the draft applicable to all male voters under 31.

Although there has been no direct authoritative expression from the White House regarding the Roosevelt volunteer proposal, administration opposition to it has been inferred from the fact that no provision for volunteers was conveyed in the bill as sent to Congress from the War Department. With the Roosevelt proposal the conferees also threw out a Senate amendment under which three regiments of volunteers could have been enlisted for service on the Mexican border.

Appeal to President Provided
The section dealing with exemption from draft was rewritten in part by the conferees committee and provision was made for hearings in exemption applications before local civil tribunals with right to appeal to a second tribunal and finally to the President.

Two of the House conferees refused to sign the conference report. Representative Anthony, of Kansas, would not accept it because the Roosevelt amendment was stricken out. Representative Kahn, of California, would not agree to the provisions should be left to the President.

Prohibition Clause Acceptable
Republicans in the Senate who have favored Colonel Roosevelt's authority to raise and take American troops to France declared tonight that an effort would be made on the floor to have the Senate insist in the retention of this feature. Another vote on the proposal may also be forced in the House which has once rejected it. The general expectation, however, is that the conference decision will prevail.

The prohibition provision as agreed to excludes liquors, beer and wines from any military post, but does not forbid selling or giving these beverages to soldiers except when in uniform. It may not suit some of the radical prohibitionists, but in view of the broad character of the bill, it is expected to be accepted.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture
Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kale Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught."

Theodor's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it!

DON'T WAIT
Take Advantage of a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

When the back begins to ache. Don't wait until backache becomes chronic. Till kidney troubles develop. Profit by a Maysville woman's experience.

Mrs. R. W. Lauderback, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "Two years ago I was suffering with kidney trouble and had been for a long time. I was nervous and dizzy and had severe headaches. My kidneys were too frequent in action and annoyed me greatly. I had a dull ache across the small of my back and my back was so lame at times that I could hardly bend one way or the other. Some one advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They helped me at once and continued use entirely cured me of the trouble."

Mrs. Lauderback is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the name that cured Mrs. Lauderback—the remedy backed by home testimony. Some folks have gotten the impression that Ford cars are scarce and hard to get. This impression is erroneous. I will get all the Ford cars I contracted for unless unforeseen circumstances prevent. However, in order to secure a Ford it is necessary to file your order and wait your turn, and orders filled now should be delivered within a few weeks. Don't let other dealers mislead you by saying you can't get a Ford. You can. But you must file your order and do so at once. "DO IT NOW."

STILL SPEEDING

Although a plain clothes man was on duty during the early part of the week, nothing has been done in the past three or four days to stop the speeding along East Second street. The autoist still have the speed bug in their bonnet and the sooner it is gotten out the better for the pedestrians. There have been three lined during the past week but it will take several more stiff assessments to stop the practice. The owner the better. Several persons have been hurt this spring and it is best to call a halt before a fatality occurs.

The Ledger is very anxious to have a complete roster of every man from Maysville or Mason county who has or will enlist in the service of his country. We therefore request that every mother will send to the Ledger the name, place and service in which her boy is or any other matter that will give his accurate postoffice address. Don't wait. Do it now.
